THE LONG, LONG TRAIL

This is the theme of our yearbook, the MIRAGE:

Mrs. Dorothy L. Stineman is our scout, the Administration and Faculty are the heads and drivers of the wagon train. The secretaries have kept records of miles covered in our years at Adams High. The wagons consist of the classes. At a rest on the trail the campers tell tall tales which, strangely enough, turn out to be the activities in the school. The end of the trail comes when the Seniors Graduate, arriving at the town of "Future." As we, the Seniors, depart from the wagon train, we leave behind us our SENIOR FAREWELL.

BOARD of EDUCATION

This year, due to the combined efforts of the Joint Board of Education, Adams-Summerhill Joint High School has been well governed. Meeting the first Tuesday of each month, the school board discussed our gratitude to the Board of Education.

JUNIOR

CLASS

Following the Seniors in our wagon train are the Juniors. This year they had a nice Share in sponsoring activities. First, they held a Halloween Party for the Freshmen. This was followed by a Skating Party at Skateland and a successful play titled "Here Comes the Brides." Last but not least, they held the Prom for the Seniors. These past activities have helped to prepare the Juniors for their position as leaders of the wagons. We wish them luck, and may their journey be rewarded as greatly as ours has been.

SOPHOMORE

CLASS

The third wagon in our train carries the Sophomore Class. Being the Seniors' sister class, they were guests at the Valentine Party held in their honor. The Sophomores sponsored a few skating parties and, as all Sophomores, had many biology sessions with Mr. Kozar. Upon entering your Junior year, the Senior Class wishes to extend all success to you in maintaining the Alma Mater.

FRESHMAN

ROW ONE, Left to Right: R. Costlow, G. Shappak, J. Ondesko, J. Kauffman, T. Kick, H. Harrington, D. Bodenschetz, E. Blow, N. Huber, J. Walls, R. Lohr. ROW TWO: E. Huber, S. Kentes, S. Barto, B. Cruckshank, J. Lidika, M. Yesenovesky, P. Sepp, F. Barto, J. Evanchick. ROW THREE: J. Berkbile, J. Ondesko, J. Frye, S. McClelland, J. Reighard, J. Kovach, F. White, J. McCall, L. White.

CLASS

This wagon is the last on the long, long trail of success. The Freshmen are inexperienced; but as they progress through their school years, they become capable of heading the wagon train.

They have a skating party in order to raise money for their Senior trip, and the Juniors treat them to a Halloween party.

The upper classmen and faculty wish you success in your coming school years at Adams High.
